

Presenters:

Jim Reger

David Irvine

Benefits to Employees:

- Learn to communicate better with your employer, co-workers, customers
- Take ownership of your work and manage conflict and change in a positive way
- Build confidence in your ability to make a difference
- Develop a stronger leadership presence – regardless of your position
- Increase your own job satisfaction and contribution to your company

Benefits to Employers:

- Build a better business by improving your employee's effectiveness and personal leadership abilities
- Promote loyalty and enthusiasm
- Understand how you are perceived and how this influences your effectiveness as a leader
- Discover a leadership style that is most relevant to your company's unique culture
- Trust is 'mission critical' in small businesses today within an organization. Trust improves employee productivity and customers get better service in a positive work environment
- Participants will leave with practical insights and tools that will help them build a powerful, effective and trusting organization

Bridges of Trust™ - A fully-funded program for small business and not-for-profits

Bridges of Trust™ is a motivational and inspirational training program available to eligible companies with 100% funding assistance through the Workplace Training for Innovation Pilot Program.

Presented at the Coast Capri Hotel in Kelowna, in June 2010, this program is designed specifically to support BC based organizations focus on their employees, their greatest asset, by helping them learn tangible techniques for increasing their effectiveness on their workplace teams and in their lives.

This program is based on Jim Reger and David Irvine's inspirational book, Bridges of Trust: Making Accountability Authentic. The Bridges of Trust™ program is your opportunity to provide cutting edge professional development for your staff – helping you attract, inspire and retain the best people with the costs covered.

This two-day workshop, brought to you by the Reger Group and MacLeod Consulting will feature David Irvine and Jim Reger as presenters. To allow staff and employers flexibility to attend and to benefit from the funding opportunities, this development program will be offered in two sessions and you may register and select the dates that best fits your schedules.

Scheduled Sessions @ Coast Capri Hotel, Kelowna, BC:

Day One: June 2nd or June 3rd

Day Two: June 16th or June 17th

During a two-day workshop series, each participant will be shown proven, practical approaches to personal leadership; methods that will be used for building a culture (and life) of greatness and inspire real trust in your organization through the power of accountability and authentic communication. Funding is available to invest in your most valuable asset.... Businesses that invest in people improve their bottom line and realize greater productivity and synergy on your team...end results, greater the profit.

Registration & Contact:

Ken MacLeod, MacLeod Consulting
T: 250.306.5915
E: macleodconsulting@themacgroup.net or

Pamela Miller
T: 250.260.0253
E: bridgesoftrust@gmail.ca

www.bridgesoftrust.ca

